Senior Sayings

RONALD ANDERSON "Andy" A little work won't hurt anyone, but why should I take a chance?

DANIEL ARONSON "Dumbo" Ambition knows no rest - I must have rest.

JUDITH BEHNKE "Judy" All the world loves a "quiet" girl.

NORMA BOLITHO "Norm" A willing worker, a real pal, a quiet, neat-looking little gal.

DALE BRISBANE "Brisy" I've got a mind of my own and it takes more than a teacher to change it.

RICHARD BROWN "Banana" I can't believe in love at first sight, but I believe in taking a second look.

MARVIN CHAMBERLAIN "Tubby" His nature is quiet, but don't judge him by it.

RANDALL CHAMPAGNE "Shep" Barbers and girls get into my hair.

KATHRYN CHAPMAN "Kaye" Silence is golden; we're off the gold standard.

ROBERTA DE CLARK "Bobbi" She takes it easy, has her fun, as hours slip by, one by one.

CAROL DES JARDINS - She would stop at St. Peter's roll-call to ask a question.

RAEBURN ERNST "Rae" She's the shy type, you have to whistle twice.

DANIEL ETHINGTON "Dan" A quiet boy, but quite a boy!

PAUL GARD - Sure, I go out on a limb. Isn't that where the fruit is?

VIRGINIA GORDON "Ginger" Her shyness ceases at 3:46.

DONALD GOUDREAU "Don" A little romance now and then never hurt the best of men.

WAYNE HALLGREN "Wayno" He knows football isn't the only thing that needs a line.

MARLENE HILL "Molly" She was cut out to be an angel but someone lost the pattern.

DONNA JOSEPHSON "Butch" A winning way, a look of style, all in a girl who is worth-while.

MELVIN HOES "Malcom" He's quiet in school, but have you ever seen him anywhere else?

CHARLES JOHNSON "Chuck" Resorts to his memory for his jokes, and to his imagination for his facts.

PATRICK KALLENBACK "Pat" There's always a joker in the game of success.

CAROLYN RICHARD "Cooney" A prettier sight was never seen when at our Prom, she reigned as Queen.

ARLENE RABOIN "Talulah" A faithful student you can't deny, but look at the twinkle in her eye.

JAMES KINSELLA "Wheels" I came, I bluffed, I graduated.

EUGENE LANTAGNE "Gene" Sometimes I sit and think, but mostly sit.

CAROL LEFFEL "Ping" When I can't talk sense, I talk nonsense.

PATRICK LYMAN "Pat" I go to school occasionally to get acquainted with the guys.

BRADDEN PAULICH "Bird Dog" It's the buzz of tubes that sets off the spark in his heart.

MAJORIE PLONKE "Marge" She's sometimes glad, sometimes sad, even mischievous, but never bad.

SHARON PONZIO "Poncho" I didn't slip, I wasn't pushed, I fell.

FRED ROUSE "Tank" Very ambitious, but not in the educational field.

JOHN SALER "Johnie" I'm just an innocent little boy in a big bad world.

ELAINE TRULOCK - What's the use of living, if you don't enjoy yourself.

MARY ANNE TUTAS "Mary" She's a musician and that's just one of her talents.

DIANE VALERIO "Tootsie" Charming, sweet, and always neat.

DALE VAN MIEGHEM "Moon Eyes" He could make a fortune polishing apples.

DON WARTICK "Twa" If there's trouble, I'm not around, but I've been there.

To the FRESHMEN - We will three years to climb the ladder of success.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hand and our seal on this third day of June in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty --

CLASS OF '60

Class History

As times are constantly changing, and modern improvements are entering into the life of our citizens, we see a very ambitious young man, who has just graduated from Niagara High School, eager to play an important role in the world. Today we find his name in the front pages of all the well-known newspapers - he is looked up to by every lover of science, and is the hero of the day.

Yes, Dale VanMeighem has volunteered to be the first man to ascent into the boundryless realm called "space."

But, of course, there are many tests to be made to be sure that he is equipped both mentally and physically for the excursion. Today, he is under-going the most crucial test of all. He is to have an interview with a staff of psychiatrists. This is the last test to determine his future. As we are his classmates, he has invited us to be an audience to this dramatic hour.

"Dale, first of all, we must have a glimpse of your childhood to be sure that you are a good specimen and example for any other race. Now, watch this instrument; concentrate on it with all your mind. That's right. You are getting very sleepy . . . very sleepy; you are now asleep. Dale, now that you have received a dose of hypnosis, you are ready to begin telling us the complete story of your friends in school."

"Gee, Mom, the school is pretty. Where are you going, Mom? Mom? Mom! Mom!! Don't leave me here, Mom. Come back! I don't want to stay!" (After 10 minutes) "Well, I guess I can find something to do if I try hard enough. Mrs. Anderson, what is there to do in "kinney-garden?" I want to play house and make something to eat. I'm hungry!" (Here we see Dale and the rest of the class of 1960 busy building with blocks, playing the marvelous things called musical instruments, drawing on the blackboard, and painting. Dale pauses here awhile to take a little nap on his tiny blanket, in what is now known as the Home Economics room.)

"Oh, I don't like first grade. They don't let us bring blankets!" (After a while the class did enjoy first grade, however. Dale tells how he found some long braids to pull. We find that the grade was split in two with Miss Blase as the teacher in the Shattuck School and Mrs. Wagner in the other building. Reading, adding, marbles for spelling, making butter, cheeks getting pulled, and other things entered into the happy picture. Florence Lewis and Linda Black were two of the classmates who left this year.)

"They can't teach me anything else. I know everything. What else can there possibly be to do in the second grade?" (Miss Blase again had the task of trying to teach the future class of 1960. In the old building, we find Mrs. Durand with an equally difficult task. For the first time, people saw their darlings coming home with cleaner faces than usual. The teachers had started checking for cleanliness.)

"Gee, Hi, Donna. You're cute." (Yes, Donna Josephson came to stay at this time. Both sections of the class had moved into the new school by the end of the year. Miss Bottger was a great pitch-pipe blower and many started to sing for the first time. A tribe of Indians set up a tepee in Miss Krysiak's room. A trip to the Pine Mountain Dairy caused some excitement. Don Shout and Mike Burbey, two of the class's heart throbs, moved away from Niagara this year.)

"Bunga? Netsook? Simbo? Who are they?" (Mrs. Romitti and Miss Bryant received custody of the brilliant class for the following year. Flash cards, long division, gym - these were something new. This is where the custom of May baskets became popular. We are sorry to see Jimmy Burden and Lucille Chamberlain leave. However, one empty space was filled when Arnold Last joined our class. Mr. Kolkowski's daughter, Karen Dedo, visited us for a while.)

"Candy! O, Boy!" (Fifth Grade already! Dale - as well as the other boys . . . and girls - enjoyed playing boys chase the girls and visa versa. Many sighs were offered by the girls from all classes when they saw the new fifth grade teacher, Mr. Myefski. The class of 1959 invited the class of 1960 to a radio play in the grade school music room. Mrs. Morstad and Mrs. Kotke both had a share in the other part of the class this year. Candy making was a specialty of Dale's section. Teddy Besau and Sharon Valencourt left us this year.)

"Yes, I like to watch birds." (The Audubon Club wasn't too successful, but it was fun. Mrs. Zimmerman and Miss Ustruck tryed their luck at taming the class - with a good deal of success. Many learned very interesting things which were found by writing dictionary pages. Art became especially interesting also this year. Dancing in heels was great fun for the girls in the Christmas play which was directed by Mrs. Fiorazo. Joe Rabbitory and Harry Santini left at this time.)

Dale proceeds to tell the psychiatrists the story of his life in school and all about his friends. We, his classmates, eagerly listen in and converse among ourselves, about these wonderful years. Ruby Reed left us in 8th grade; Janet Paquette left in 9th grade; also Irene Herzog; and Charlotte Swanson, who had been with us a long time, left in our Junior year. We were happy to see Carol Leffel, who came in 9th grade, and Danny Ethington, who came in 10th. Those that left our class, we will always be glad we had the opportunity to know. The things we remember most about our high school days are the wonderful teachers, and advisors (Mr. Butler in 7th, and Mr. Pedo in 8th), we were fortunate enough to have. In high school many new lessons were learned - not only out of books, but also from the hearts of our teachers. Mr. Monette was our advisor in 9th grade; Mr. De Amico in 10th; Mr. Kinziger in 11th, and Miss Milks in our Senior year. As we discuss them we find only very good things to say about them, even though we might not have done so while in school. I guess now we're adult enough to appreciate good things when we see them. We remembered how happy we were when we had won seconds in the class plays for two years - and then won a first in our senior year (and went on to two more contests!) We want to thank Mrs. Fox for our victory. There are so many other things we discussed; it wouldn't be possible to mention even half of them, but you can be sure they will live in our memories.

By the way, in case you're wondering, Dale's tests checked out favorably, but he won't be the first man into space . . . some people from another planet beat us to it!

And So Goodbye

At last the end of our school days fades away . . . Our four years of study . . . cherished friendships . . . schoolwork and school activities have slowly faded away . . . A new life lies ahead . . . fame and fortune for some, disappointment and heartache for others . . . each one out to seek success . . . As we approach the future we shall always remember our class motto, "The end of a chapter, but there's more to the book."

Junior Prom

The class of 1960 held their Junior Prom, MIDNIGHT FANTASY, on Friday, May 15, 1959. The theme was carried out by a false ceiling of various shades of blue, with a huge moon and stars completing the scenic effect. A city sky-line at night and silhouetted dancing couples formed the wall background. Couples drank coke in a floral garden, served from an unbrella punch-stand by girls in black costumes. Silhouetted heads were the name plates. The "Welcome Seniors" sign was surrounded by Senior names on numerous moons and stars. Within a blue orchestra room, Fritz Spera and his five-piece orchestra played the theme song "Fascination." King, Dick Brown, and his Queen, Carolyn Richard, were crowned in a huge picture frame by the Honor Couple, Wayne Hallgren and Virginia Gordon.

King Dick - Queen Carolyn

Court of Honor was:

Wayne Hallgren	Ginger Gordon
Randy Champagne	Marlene Hill
Paul Gard	Sharon Ponzio
Dale Van Meighem	D. Josephson
Don Wartick	Arlene Raboin
John Saler	Carol Leffel
Jim Kinsella	Kaye Chapman
